- B. All site construction and capital improvement or maintenance projects may take precedence over events. However, after an agreement is made with the County to hold an event, the County will not plan or conduct operations that would substantially hinder the operations of the event.
- C. Permits do not include rain dates.
- D. Information provided to the County as part of the special use permit process may be subject to review and inspection under the Open Public Records Act (N.J.S.A 47:1A-1)

The County will allow public assemblies, meetings, demonstrations, religious activities, and other public expressions of views conducted under the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution in parks, in accordance with the County regulations provided that a permit has been obtained from the County.
- B. To ensure public safety, protect site resources, and avoid assigning the same time and location to two or more activities, the County may manage these activities by regulating the time, location, number of participants, use of facilities, and number and types of equipment used, but not the content or message.
- C. Locations within the site that are available for public assemblies and other First Amendment activities, including the distribution of printed matter, will be designated on a map by the County. When the County allows one group to use an area or facility for expressing views, it must allow all other groups a similar opportunity, if requested.
- D. No group wishing to assemble lawfully may be discriminated against or denied the right of assembly, provided that all applicable permit criteria and requirements are met.

On-duty staff may not participate in the First Amendment activity. County employees exercising their First Amendment rights when off duty will not imply any County endorsement of the activity.

Section II

In case of the revocation of any Park permit, all monies paid for or on account thereof shall be forfeited to and be retained by the County; and the holder of such permit, together with his agents and employees who violated such terms and conditions, shall be jointly and severally liable to the County for all damages and loss suffered by it in excess of the money so forfeited and retained; but neither such forfeiture and retention by the County of the whole or any part of such monies, nor the recovery or collection thereby of such damages, or both, shall in any manner relieve such person or persons from liability to punishment for any violation of any provision of this ordinance.
2. The County shall have the right to deny any future permits to any individual or party who has previously violated the terms of a permit issued by the County or another governmental agency or authority.
3. If any person shall be found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of the violation of any provision of this ordinance the conviction shall operate as a revocation of any permit granted by the County without further action.
4. The Parks Director or designee shall have the authority to immediately revoke for good cause any permit or reservation issued by the County Parks Department.
